'Post-classical history' is a periodization used by historians employing a "world history" approach to history, specifically the school developed during the late 20th and early 21st centuries. Outside of world history, the term is also sometimes used to avoid erroneous pre-conceptions around the terms "Middle Ages", "Medieval" and "Dark Ages" (see medievalism).

Great account! Many thanks for taking the time to share your experiences dY™, Also, based on your account, notably the i) high at the end (Day 8), ii) your ability to keep your mind in check when it comes up with some excuse and serotonin to distract you, and iii) the internalisation of the insight "that nobody cares" about what you do "those seem like three big wins to me.
