Emotion is any conscious experience characterized by intense mental activity and a certain degree of pleasure or displeasure. Scientific discourse has drifted to other meanings and there is no consensus on a definition. Emotion is often intertwined with mood, temperament, personality, disposition, and motivation. In some theories, cognition is an important aspect of emotion.

Aristotle coined the 3 pillars of influence as Ethos (credibility appeal), Logos (logical appeal), and Pathos (emotional appeal). We discussed credibility earlier, in the preparation part of your presentation, as it relates to building trust and rapport with your audience. Now is the time to craft your message so it finds balance between the other two, logic and emotion.

If you have a passion for designing and animating computer characters seen in film, advertising or games then this is the course for you. Character animation involves creating the illusion of thought and emotion through a character's physical actions. Without this the humour, eccentricity, energy, sadness or fear in a character wouldn't be communicated.
